

In a recent video interview with Access Hollywood, Robert Downey Jr., who was being honored the 25th Annual American Cinematheque Award, briefly shared his thoughts on The Avengers' praised theatrical trailer. And interestingly declaring Iron Man 3 possibly the best of the franchise, watch the video below. "It's going to be a really, really exciting bit of storytelling," Robert said. "I won't be surprised if it's the best of the three." The 46-year-old actor, who is a standout in recently released "The Avengers" trailer, told Access he impressed to see the sneak peak. "[The trailer] turned out well," Downey Jr. said. "It's been a fun week." I know it's too early to judge how great Iron Man 3 may be, but coming from the man who publicly shared his slight disappointment with last year's sequel, I'll take his word for it. Anyhow, Iron Man 3, directed by Shane Black, hits May 3, 2013! Marvel's
