

Recently chatting with Extra in a video interview, actor Robert Downey Jr. discussed future events in his life including the birth of his second child, The Avengers and essentially what will be his fourth 'Iron Man' appearance in Marvel's Iron Man 3 movie. Having nothing but praise for the Shane Black-directed threequel, near the 1:50 mark, watch the great interview below.

video platformvideo managementvideo solutionsvideo player Iron Man 3 is probably the best script I've read in five years, which is so funny. I mean, things have come so full circle that a genre superhero movie can actually be the most artistic bit of writing I read. But I think The Avengers is something a lot of the fans are really looking forward to, so I'm excited about that. The third Iron Man to me is an opportunity to go back to the kind of storytelling and character exploration that made the first
