

Last night's episode was great we finally had Rick's wife Lori reveal to her husband that she had sex with Shane and that she is pregnant. We've been waiting quite some time for one of these major plot points to surface, and instead of one coming to light, we got two. Surprisingly as well was Rick's reaction to the news of Shane being with Lori. He seemed to take it quite well, in a very mature way, but I doubt that is how he'll be once he interacts with Shane, which should happen on the finale next week. Kirkman says in the interview that the audience can expect a little shock. I'm going to speculate that next weeks episode will be the last one for Shane. From what we've seen of the commercials for next week is that Shane is head to the barn, I'm gonna assume Rick shoots Shane to prove
