

Earlier today we saw the article from RadarOnline claiming that Lindsay Lohan was still up for a role in Zack Snyder's upcoming Superman movie. Well tucked away at the bottom of that same article seems to be a little bit of information that went over-looked by most readers, the article also claims that actor Adam Harris is supposedly up for the role of Lex Luthor and will be reading alongside Lindsay for her role. "Another role that is close to being filled is that of Lex Luther, the power-mad archenemy of Superman. RadarOnline.com has learned fledgling actor Adam Harris, who bears a striking resemblance to Luther, is in the mix and has auditioned multiple times for producers. Harris is scheduled to join Lohan for the read, suggesting the pair could be teamed together as villains." Not much is really known about Harris, I could only find a couple pictures of him, and by the looks
