Wait, what? OK, so I'm pretty sure that most of you deep inside had a feeling that we will someday see another Matrix movie from the Wachowski brothers. According to AICN, that is indeed the case. One of their sources had a Q&A with Keanu Reeves who shared some new info on the potential return to the Matrix: "Says he met the Wachowski's (no emphasis on the word brothers), for lunch over Christmas and stated that they had completed work on a two picture script treatment that would see him return to the world of the Matrix as Neo. Says the brothers have met with Jim Cameron to discuss the pro's and con's of 3D and are looking to deliver something which has never been seen again. Keanu stated that he still has an obligation to the fans to deliver a movie worthy of the title "The Matrix" and he swears this time
