So, there were some reports that Warner Bros. is going the Green Lantern route by having the Superman costume being all CG. Now this new report is saying that, plus that Henry Cavill may not be in the Superman suit at all. From Cinematical: We still don't know in which direction the new Superman movie will head, with the exception of the fact that Henry Cavill will be playing Clark Kent/Superman. We've heard the film may follow Clark Kent as he travels the world as a journalist, trying to come to terms with his powers and whether he belongs in this world. We've also heard that Cavill may not be in the Superman suit at all, that folks behind the scenes have been testing an all-C.G. Superman that looks sorta like Christopher Reeve. Also, the report is saying that Lois Lane won't be a big part of the movie and two other actresses are
