

The folks over at LatinoReview have been contacted by a reliable source who has given them more information on 'Man of Steel'. They claim that this source is the same one who revealed that Kevin Costner would play Johnathan Kent, that Lois Lane would be in the film, and that Zod would be the villain. The source has now revealed that we will indeed be seeing another Kryptonian villain, a female Kryptonian to be more specific. Here's the report: " I got to speak with my reliable source about the project once again. For you readers who have doubts about the validity of this source's info, this is the same individual that revealed to us Kevin Costner was cast as 'Pa' Kent, Lois Lane would appear in the film and Zod would be the villain, a major scoop that was finally proven valid with the news of Michael Shannon's casting a few days ago.
