

Well if this news is true then that would eliminate one role that Joseph Gordon-Levitt could possibly be playing, since nobody thinks he is just John Blake the cop. Now if you remember, Variety in the past reported that JGL was going to play Alberto Falcone, son of former mob boss Carmine Falcone (Tom Wilkinson). To me that sounds like a better fit in Nolan's trilogy and would tie up the mobster angle that was seen throughout the previous two films. To be fair, Entertainment Weekly's inside source said that report was not true too. So, who do you guys think JGL is playing? Cosmic Book News Apparently there is some thought that "Batman: No Man's Land" will play a part in The Dark Knight Rises. The reason being could either be because of the footage from the Pittsburgh Heinz Field shoot, which some thought revealed Bane having an "earthquake device," or that
