

According to DarkUFO, a member of SpoilerTV are new details about two characters in Michael Bay's upcoming film, Transformers 4. The new female lead that they are looking for is a high school senior and her boyfriend a Texas racing driver. - SpoilerTV Once Michael Bay had completed "Dark Of The Moon," he was quick to call it his last film in the "Transformers" series, but last month he changed his tune. It was when he was at Universal Studios observing a long line of people waiting over two and half hours to enjoy the new "Transformers" theme-park ride. That convinced him that he wasn't ready to pass the baton just yet.
