

Courtesy of Abbanibi ISRAELI HOTTIE SARAI GIVATY IS reportedly doing really well in the auditions for 'The Wolverine,' the next installment in the X-Men movie franchise. Apparently Givaty has already passed two auditions for the role of one of Wolverine's sexy hunters, and now she's set for an audition with the movie's director, James Mangold. Sarai Givaty has already claimed her fame when she guest-starred in the #1 TV show 'NCIS' as Ziva's nemesis, and she recently finished filming 'Black Velvet' opposite Ray Wise ('Twin Peaks,' '24'). She's currently finishing recording her debut album in Israel, from which the first single has already been released, called 'Paris'. I saw her guest appearance in NCIS, and she was terrific at playing a strong devious character that was Ziva's adversary. If the huntress role is from the comic books, I can't think of one that would fit the Frank Miller Japanese sage. Pictures are from saraigivaty.com Video
