

There are always some great costumes coming out of Comic-Con, but honestly this year has set the bar. People really have gone to enormous effort, and I'm seeing a few characters popping up that I have never seen cosplayed before. Comic Vine have put together a huge gallery of 600 images, and we've featured some of the best ones here. You may recognize a lady we feature regularly here on CBM, Vampy Bit Me (aka Linda Le) as Miss Captain America..

Like I said, there are literally hundreds more pics over at Comic Vine, so click the link below to check em out.
