

Max Landis excitedly explains the evolution of the Igor character. Going to great lengths to explain the origin and history of the character. It's actually quite interesting to see where the modern version of the sickly assistant of Dr. Frankenstein came about. How the character of Igor was portrayed in the original tale that Mary Shelley spun together. Also, Max addresses the outlandish rumors that the film will be set at a circus. Which to be honest is news to me, but I guess I'll believe that, that rumor is floating around.
