

Along with our recent site revamp, we've decided to take the lessons learned from the Hall of Shame these past months and give it an upgrade as well. As you know, we (the owners of the site) allow a lot of freedom of speech on CBM, and unfortunately that allows for a LOT of negative shenanigans. That is why we designed our unique automated reporting system, to help us combat TRUE trolls and identify inappropriate comments that need to be deleted. It's been very working well, helping to get rid of persistent troublemakers, but these new tweaks should make it work even better. Initially we had each different type of abuse separated into its own report: Namecalling, Threatening, Whining, Inappropriate, Piracy, Spamming etc., but that was too much reading for most of you lazy asses, and we found that many users weren't labeling the offensive comment correctly. We decided that it was
