

That's right. If you've been frustrated that your articles haven't seen the light of day under the tabs, we've just made it easier for you to get the exposure you want by automating the process. Now all you need to do is get enough user "Thumbs ups" or "Likes" (see bottom of article). If enough users agree that your article deserves to be moved to the homepage, and they click on the red thumbs up glove at the bottom of the article, it will by-pass CBM editors and appear on the main. We've done this because, frankly, our editors aren't perfect and do miss stuff from time to time, and we don't want anything worthy of the main to be passed over. If you want to take advantage of this new change in our submissions policy, just be sure that you follow these steps: 1. Write well. It goes without saying that users who
