

The Daily Mail is reporting that Daniel Craig was spotted in London today filming shooting scenes for Skyfall. The star was seen in the backseat of a Range Rover being chauffeured to his next destination. A stunt man was also seen on the top of the vehicle driving the Range Rover and has led the paper to guess that there may be some high tech Q like gadgetry at play.

A source told the Daily Mirror newspaper: 'Six different countries were selected but after several technical and financial problems, it was decided to scale back and just use Turkey as the sole foreign location.' 'As well as Pinewood's incredible facilities, the UK has some stunning beaches, particularly along the south coast near Bognor and parts of Wales.'
