

Here's a clip of Clark and Lex from the Smallville finale that was on G4's Attack of the Show. Someone uploaded this video in a article yesterday but Youtube took the video down. So I recorded the video with my camera, so the quality is not as good and is a little shaky, but you get the feeling of how it's gonna go down between the two in this episode and the feelings Lex has towards Clark. (note: the video is still processing but will be up soon.) until then, here's the youtube video, until it gets taken down (if it does) Promo #2 from the Space Channel shows some new clips from the Finale of Smallville.
