

Below is an interview with Mr. Welling himself hinting at one really great scene between him and Lex...and of course he mentioned that he will indeed be donning the suit. This probably isn't much...but it should be enough to sooth at least a little bit of the anticipation many fans are having for the finale. With my most favorite CB villain Lex Luthor's return and Clark finally growing a pair and becoming Superman...my hopes are high as are everyone else's that this finale will be FREAKING AWESOME!!!! Ok, so here's the interview: Clark's relationship with Lois (Erica Durance): "In the season finale, we address the future between Clark and Lois. I think that what you'll see is that Clark is destined to be alone. It's the hero's burden," says Welling. "You'll see in the finale that of course, there is a future between Clark and Lois in the world of
