

We caught a glimpse of Savitar when he took out The Rival, but the mysterious villain's face was finally revealed in last night's episode of The Flash when he attacked Barry Allen and the CCPD. As you can see below, he looks a lot different to both his comic book counterpart and Reverse-Flash and Zoom. Last night's instalment of The Flash ended on one hell of a cliffhanger, and it will be interesting to see how it's resolved considering the fact that Savitar is about to deal a killing blow to the Fastest Man Alive. Perhaps Wally will emerge from the cocoon as a speedster to help save the hero? We'll have to wait and see, but let us know your thoughts on this take on the villain in the comments section.
