

As we all know, Mark Hamill has appeared as The Trickster in earlier seasons of The Flash, but in these new set pics he's definitely looking more like another DC supervillain he's closely associated with: The Joker. The photos were taken on the Vancouver set of an upcoming season 3 episode, and posted online by Twitter user Bruna Skrzypek - though she doesn't seem to have any context for what was being filmed. One of the images does show Hamill alongside John Wesley Shipp's Jay Garrick, so perhaps this is simply Earth 3's Trickster? Whatever the case may be, it's highly unlikely Hamill is actually playing an incarnation of The Joker, but it's a cool little homage to his acclaimed take on the character all the same.
