

Following our first official look at Stephen Merchant as Caliban in James Mangold's Logan earlier today, the actor has posted another somewhat unsettling glimpse of himself in full makeup (though obscured by a mask) as the Morlock character. Fans have been curious as to how Caliban will factor into the final Wolverine movie's plot, but we do know his main ability in the comics is locating other mutants, so chances are that's what he's going to be up to, since we know the film's future setting isn't exactly going to be overflowing with the children of the atom. Keep an eye out for more Logan reveals over the next few days.
