

For fans that didn't already know, the amazing Scarface film is set to hit Blu-ray quite soon and while out promoting the release, one of the film's stars turned producer, Steven Bauer, gives us a bit of an update on the progress of Universal's unnecessary reboot of the Wolfman project. Bauer, who played "Manny" in the popular gangster flick, is acting as a producer for the upcoming reboot and he tells Movie Hole that two actors have already signed on to the project. "What I could say is that Stephen Rea is already casted. The great Irish English actor, Stephen Rea is in the film. And another American who's maybe... Another American, Ed Quinn is in it too. Most people would know Stephen Rea for his role as "Finch" in James McTeigue's adaptation of V for Vendetta. Ed Quinn is a lesser known actor, but he has had a recurring role on SyFy's now-cancelled

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/geekboymovienews/news/?a=46514&t=Stephen_Rea_Joins_Universals_iWolfman_Reboot