

An extended cut of David Ayer's Suicide Squad is set to be released on Blu-ray this December, and an image of the back cover art has been leaked online via the DC Cinematic Reddit page. An initial report indicated that we'd be getting 13 minutes of previously unseen footage, but as you can see, it's actually only going to be 11. Considering all the stuff involving The Joker, Harley and others that we know was left out of the theatrical cut of the film, 11 additional minutes really doesn't sound like much, and will no doubt disappoint fans that were hoping for a more cohesive version of the divisive supervillain flick. We also have a full list of the various featurettes that'll be included as special features on the disc.
