

Over the past few years, we've had photographer Clay Enos to thank for our first look at Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice, Suicide Squad, and Wonder Woman, not to mention characters like The Joker and Lex Luthor. As a result, his work has become synonymous with the DC Films Universe, and thanks to Batman-News, we now have a full gallery of photos featuring the members of Task Force X. We're obviously all very familiar with these characters at this point, but these portraits are fantastic, and very different to the promotional images we normally get for superhero movies. That alone makes them worth highlight, though any one of these - depending on who your favourite villain is - will also make for a great wallpaper for you phone. Personally, I'm going for Margot Robbie's Harley Quinn...
