

The decision to cover Suicide Squad's take on The Joker in tattoos didn't go down too well with a lot of fans, but there's no denying that there were some creative and interesting designs on display. These new production stills from the movie's iOS app (via Batman News) give us a closer look at most of them - though the All-Star Batman influenced dragon on his back and a couple more on his side are not spotlighted. Tell us, did you warm to The Joker's inked-up appearance at all, or were his tats the least of your concerns upon seeing the movie?
