

Ahead of the home release of the Suicide Squad Extended Edition later this month, Warner Bros. has released a behind-the-scenes featurette focusing on the incomparable Harley Quinn. In it, Margot Robbie explains how she came to love the character after reading just a handful of comics, while director David Ayer also weighs in. Plus, there's a quick snippet of new footage of Harley blasting away in there too. We also have a previously unreleased look at Rick Flag (Joel Kinnaman) courtesy of photographer Clay Enos.
