

SuperHeroStuff.Com has been celebrating the Avengers premier for the past couple weeks. Now we are basking in the glow of the epic movie that everyone is 'still' talking about. While we're basking a couple more exciting events have happened. One such event is the reason this website was created, Free Comic Book Day. May 5th was Free Comic Book Day across the country and a day we look forward to all year. OK...We're a couple days late, but we'll be celebrating FCBD all week. FCBD is celebrated every year on the first Saturday in May. This is a national promotional effort to raise the awareness of comic books and the comic book genre. This wonderful tradition began in May of 2002 with the release of the first Spiderman movie. As the years have passed it seems that a major premier of a big-screen comicbook adaptation will coincide
