

Following Justice League Dark, DC will release an animated adaptation of Marv Wolfman and George Perez's Teen Titans: The Judas Contract, which is arguably the most popular Titans comic arc, and introduced Terra to the team. The story also featured the origin of Deathstroke, and was notable for Dick Grayson adopting the mantle of Nightwing for the first time. The first trailer for the movie debuted a couple of weeks back, but now we have a press release which reveals that the film will hit digital HD, Blu-Ray/ DVD combo pack on April 18, 2017. The full voice cast (Kevin Smith will appear as himself) and synopsis are also included, along with the Blu-ray cover artwork. Check it all out below and let us know if you're looking forward to DC's latest animated feature. Led by Starfire, the Teen Titans – Beast Boy, Raven, Blue Beetle, Robin and the just-returned Nightwing – have built a cohesive team in their never-ending battle against evil; but
