

Regardless of whether you love or hate the Transformers franchise, the trailers almost always deliver. That's probably why we get so excited before inevitably being left disappointed, but regardless of that, we're getting a first look at Transformers: The Last Knight tomorrow. It's also been confirmed that set visit embargoes are being lifted, so expect some official images and plot details to also surface. Set to be released on June 23rd next year, Transformers: The Last Knight will feature the return of Mark Wahlberg as Cade Yeager as well as new roles for Isabela Moner and Jerrod Carmichael. With Bay back in the director's chair, the screenplay for the movie was written by Iron Man's Art Marcum and Matt Holloway along with Ken Nolan (Black Hawk Down).
