

In honor of the 2011 American Film Market currently going on in Santa Monica, California I thought I would share some details about films that may be of interest to the CBM community. If you follow some of the other, more global media sites, you've read about all kinds of Indie Dramas, Comedies, and Documentaries that are currently at the AFM but very little has emerged (aside from Oldboy and Evil Dead) about the film genre that we care about. In light of this fact, I've combed The Film Catalogue (it's quite huge!) to find a few movies to share including: -Biosphere -Blacklands -Bullet to the Head -Dorothy of Oz -Dredd -I, Frankenstein - An adaption of the Darkstorm graphic novel starring Aaron Eckhart -Mass Effect (anime) -Pan-A Peter Pan re-imagining starring Aaron Eckhart -The Last Days Of American Crime -An Untitled Sam Raimi Horror Project - Starring Jeffrey Dean Morgan The Film Catalogue contains thousands of projects and

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/GraphicCity/news/?a=49365&t=The_2011_American_Film_Market_CBM_Style