

With only two days remaining until Sony Pictures' The Amazing Spider-Man opens in the U.S., the film premiered early this weekend for various countries overseas. And according to Deadline insiders, the Marc Webb-directed 3D reboot is already breaking box office records set by Marvel's The Avengers superhero ensemble. Sources are telling me that The Amazing Spiderman swept the Asian box office this weekend. In Korea the 3D film debuted $13M bigger than Marvel's The Avengers which scored one of the biggest openings ever there. The sources say that India took in $5+M more than Avengers for the biggest opening ever there for a U.S. film. Adding that The Amazing Spider-Man's opening in Hong Kong, Phillippines and Singapore have also been dubbed "huge," expect an update via deadline with exact box office numbers later today. What do you think? Like most teenagers his age, Peter is trying to figure out who

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/MarvelFreshman/news/?a=62717>