

Sally Avril was part of a group of kids in Queens, New York, consisting of Liz Allan, Tiny McKeever, Seymour O'Reilly, Jason Ionello and Peter Parker who were friends since Elementary School. But by the time they arrived at Midtown High School, Peter had drifted apart and the clique was taken over by new student Flash Thompson. From that point, Sally wanted nothing to do with Peter, shooting him down when he asks for a date in favor of "dream boats like Flash Thompson" and coaxing Liz away from Peter rather than offer sympathy after the death of his Uncle Ben. - spiderfan.org Do you have any other upcoming projects between school and work? Kelsey Chow: I do. I have a very small, little thing in the next 'Spider-Man' movie. That's amazing. Kelsey Chow: Thank you so much. I found out last minute and I took off work for a day and went on set
