

The latest big reveal from Entertainment Weekly, regarding Marvel's The Avengers, depicts interviews with the cast, where they reveal on-set experiences, character motives & dynamics, and scene details. Somewhat revealing which Avenger will to take down the Incredible Hulk, read on below! More from Robert Downey Jr. on the scripting process: What were Robert Downey Jr.'s first meetings like with Whedon when the script was being developed? "Well, I said, 'I need to be in the opening sequence. I don't know what you're thinking, but Tony needs to drive this thing.' He was like, 'Okay, let's try that.' We tried it and it didn't work, because this is a different sort of thing, the story and the idea and the theme is the theme, and everybody is just an arm of the octopus. But what was I like?" He laughs. "As usual, just f—ing aggressive and hurtful; whatever. The usual." From Scarlett Johansson
