

After sitting out the first game and subsequently becoming one of the most requested characters for the upcoming sequel, NetherRealm has finally made it official - The Black Canary is coming to Injustice 2! Earlier this afternoon, IGN debuted a first look gameplay trailer spotlighting Laurel Lance's alter-ego, the Black Canary, as she engages with a number of DC's most popular heroes & villains, performing a wide variety of attacks, including her Canary Cry and her ultimate finishing move. There's no word yet on who's voicing her, but that information should be out relatively soon as the release date inches closer and closer. Check out the latest gameplay trailer below: Power up and build the ultimate version of your favorite DC legends in INJUSTICE 2. With a massive selection of DC Super Heroes and Super-Villains, INJUSTICE 2 allows you to equip every iconic character with unique and powerful gear earned throughout the game. Experience an unprecedented level of control over how your favorite characters

Read more: https://www.comicbookmovie.com/video_games/the-black-canary-makes-her-screeching-debut-in-the-latest-gameplay-a148627