

NBC announced to retailers that the titled "The Cape - The Complete Series" will be out by July 5th on DVD (no Blu-ray mentioned). Its a 2-disc set thats running time is 371 minutes in anamorphic widescreen video, English Dolby Digital 5.1 Surround Sound, with English subtitles. No extras as yet and the complete set will retail for $29.98, packaging below: "The NBC series is set in the fictional metropolis of Palm City, it follows a innocent cop (Vince Faraday played by David Lyons) who has been framed for a crime that he didn't commit and then left for dead after he's caught. Faraday is eventually saved by a circus ringleader (Keith David) who prepares him with special abilities to defend himself against his new foes. Separated from his wife and son, he tries to clear his name while protecting them from being killed if he was ever reported alive. He takes

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/SuperGamer/news/?a=36838&t=The_Cape_Complete_Series_To_Hit_on_DVD_in_July