

While promoting his television series David opened up about some of his upcoming projects. One of them being Christopher Nolan's The Dark Knight Rises. During the interview he talks about the auditioning process and how that moment marked a profound change in the trajectory of his acting career. He also revealed that he will be sharing screen time with Tom Conti and a wee bit with star, Christian Bale. So, from that information what can common sense tell us about David's role in the film? Well, we can pretty much identify Tom Conti as the actor that explains what the chanting is to an inquisitive Bruce Wayne. Christian Bale asks, "What does that mean?" and Tom Conti replies, "Rise." In the brief glimpse Conti is blurred, but his voice is as distinct as Kermit the frog. So, my best guess is that David will be imprisoned just like Conti and Bale.
