Got some sweet footage of the tumblers driving on the streets! Still watching the filming but will try to not keep everybody waiting too long! Lots of fake news reporters and crews out. Prisoners practicing throwing punches on the steps against guys in black basketball shorts and white shirts. Like 12 couples all doing the same practicing. Article from the postgazette.com On 41st Street between Butler and Foster streets, director Christopher Nolan was on-site to oversee the film's first day of shooting in Pittsburgh. Under his watchful eye, dozens of cargo-short clad staffers converted picturesque row house No. 170 into the home of a Gotham City judge, played by Brett Cullen. Piles of fake snow dotted the sidewalks, and black canvas drapes and heavy-duty screens blotted out the sun
