

According to the almost always reliable National Enquirer Christian Bale was witnessed Christmas shopping near his home in Brentwood, Los Angeles. From there the tale gets much more interesting as two vagrants began to have a loud shouting match near the actor and his family. The source informs the tabloid, "I could not believe what I was seeing. It wasn't clear what the people were arguing about - but it soon became apparent that their conversation was heading toward a violent incident." "One of the homeless guys cocked back his fist and was just about to strike the other man - but out of nowhere Christian Bale appeared and got in the middle of them! Christian acted like a referee and told the homeless men to take it elsewhere - and away from all the families that were enjoying the peaceful surroundings." The Dark Knight Rises hits theaters July 20th 2012 and stars
