

Last month, we were the first to report on rumors of there being a teaser trailer for Christopher Nolan's third and final 'Batman' flick, The Dark Knight Rises, appearing in front of Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Part 2. And now, that possibility is seeming more than likely to occur with the ever-reliable SuperheroHype reporting so, with even more details. SuperHeroHype has received word from a trustworthy source that the teaser trailer and teaser poster for Christopher Nolan's The Dark Knight Rises is set to hit theaters with Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows - Part 2 next week! We're hearing that the teaser trailer is a minute & 33 seconds long & will play in both 2D theaters & IMAX 3D screens. The site further states they're uncertain if the teaser will be available online, though it's almost obvious eager fans will have it recorded and online in no time. With
