

"You're going to turn your back on family?" After shutting down Times Square for a global fan event, Universal Pictures has finally debuted the first official full-length trailer for their highly anticipated action sequel The Fate of the Furious and it literally has everything you could ever want from a Fast & Furious movie (including a submarine!), but don't get too comfortable as it doesn't take long before it establishes Charlize Theron's wicked villain and also reveals the ultimate betrayal! Check out the trailer below: On the heels of 2015's Furious 7, one of the fastest movies to reach $1 billion worldwide in box-office history and the sixth-biggest global title of all time, comes the newest chapter in one of the most popular and enduring motion-picture serials of all time: The Fate of the Furious. Now that Dom and Letty are on their honeymoon and Brian and Mia have retired from the game—and the rest of the crew has been exonerated—the globetrotting team has found a semblance
