

Netflix has released the first official trailer for Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events, and it's quite unwelcoming. The trailer features our first look at Patrick Warburton as the mysterious Lemony Snicket as he walks around the set of the upcoming series while also warning the viewer of the melancholy one might feel if they choose to watch. The series will consist of eight episodes that focus on the tragic story of the Baudelaire orphans and their sinister caretaker Count Olaf, played by Neil Patrick Harris. The Netflix-produced series is based on Daniel Handler's, aka Lemony Snicket's, international best-selling book series of the same name. The show and all eight of its episodes will premiere on Netflix, Friday, January 13th, 2017. Follow @_Kr08
