

The CW has released a new BTS video for the current season of The Flash, focusing on the creation of the various superhero costumes we see on the show week to week. Though the spotlight is placed on the outfits worn by The Rival, Kid Flash, and The Scarlet Speedster himself, we also get a glimpse of the duds Cisco Ramon and Caitlin Snow will be suiting-up in when they finally become their superhero/villain alter-egos, Vibe and Killer Frost. We don't get to see the costumes in full, but judging from what is shown, they're going to be fairly comic book-accurate. There's no new episode tonight, but The Flash returns with a Kevin Smith-helmed installment on November 22. Check out the synopsis below. KEVIN SMITH DIRECTS; KILLER FROST EMERGES — Caitlin (Danielle Panabaker) uses her powers to save Barry (Grant Gustin) but as her mother predicted, the effort unleashes her inner Killer Frost. Killer Frost goes on a rampage looking for Dr.
