

It's not easy being The Flash right now. Not only did the hero alter his reality by time-travelling, but those same antics, as it turns out, were the catalyst for last week's invasion by the alien Dominators. Coupled with the fact that there's an all-powerful Speed Force God named Savitar ready to eradicate him, an overwhelmed Barry will turn to Jay Garrick in tonight's mid season finale. However, according to actor John Wesley Shipp, Jay initially believes Savitar to be a myth. "Well, to set it up, Jay's not sure that Savitar even exists. He's a Speed Force myth and — as an unseen, unknown fear — is even bigger than a fear that you know," Shipp explained to CBR. "First of all, Jay is surprised — maybe even a little miffed — that Savitar showed himself to Barry! I've known him as a myth my whole life, me being Jay, and when I come up against him, I know that Jay knows that

Read more: https://www.comicbookmovie.com/tv/dc/the\_flash/the-flash-john-wesley-shipps-jay-garrick-initially-believes-a147319