

Per Prof. Stein actor Victor Garber, Legends of Tomorrow fans will learn a lot more about the cryptic warning a future version (from the year 2056) of The Flash (Grant Gustin) left for Rip Hunter during the four-part crossover event kicking off next week. Does this mean The Flash's cryptic warning was about The Dominators? Heck, we don't even know what timeline that version of The Flash hails from. Well, Garber tells CBR that viewers should expect some revelations to during the epic, four-night INVASION! storyline. "It sort of comes out in dribs and drabs. It's a big mystery and a big deal. It's a spoiler if I give you too much information, but it's just part of the whole mystery of time travel and the fact that this is coming from Barry years later and then when he finds out — and that all happens in the crossover, so it just sort of unfolds as these things do on these shows,
