

When The Flash returns on January 24th, it will be in an episode appropriately titled "Borrowing Problems from the Future." As you can see in the promo below, Barry Allen is doing everything in his power to stop Iris West's death at the hands of Savitar from taking place, and whether or not he'll be able to succeed is clearly going to be a huge part of the second half of the show's third season now. Chances are she won't die, but here's hoping The Flash still has plenty of big twists and turns on the way as the story develops. Anyway, watch the promo and let us know your thoughts down below. BARRY FIGHTS FOR IRIS — Barry (Grant Gustin) is tormented by his vision of the future where Iris (Candice Patton) is murdered by Savitar. When a criminal named Plunder (guest star Stephen Huszar) shows up in Central City, Barry recalls the villain's presence in his vision of the future and
