

Kevin Smith has done some stellar work in the DC TV Universe, and excitement for his take on Supergirl is at an all-time high as a result. As you can see below, this is clearly going to be a big episode as both the Girl of Steel and Mon-El are transported to a planet with a red sun (leaving them powerless) where returning villain Roulette is clearly having a whale of a time pitting all sorts of aliens against each other. It doesn't sound like "Supergirl Lives" is a game changer in the same way as Smith's episodes of The Flash, but it should still be fun, especially as this is the first time Kara has encountered a red sun. KEVIN SMITH DIRECTS; ROULETTE RETURNS — Kara (Melissa Benoist) is moved by the story of a missing woman named Izzy (guest star Harley Quinn Smith) and decides to investigate despite Snapper Carr's (guest star Ian Gomez) order to leave it alone. Kara takes
