This from The Hollywood Reporter, "Green Hornet actor Eddie Furlong was arrested Tuesday for allegedly violating a restraining order taken out against him by his estranged wife, according to published reports. Last year, actress Rachael Kneeland obtained a court order requiring Furlong to remain at least 100 yards away from her. In her court paper, she reportedly alleged that he "grabbed me, bruised me, pushed me ... left messages saying he would hire people to come and beat me with chains and bats. He is smoking cocaine and doing other various drugs. He is very unpredictable."
