

The week of February 20th is really shaping up to be a huge week for DC TV, with major episodes of Supergirl, The Flash, and Arrow all confirmed to air late last night. Now, we have the plot description for that week's episode of Legends of Tomorrow, which may be one of the most eventful hours of its sophomore season. The episode will see the Legends reunite with at least two members of the Justice Society of America, who they've learned are guarding different pieces of the Spear of Destiny. Their journey will first take them to the distant future where they find Dr. Mid-Nite and then to Camelot where they discover Star-Girl. However, upon arrival in ancient Camelot, they'll have to join forces with the Knights of the Round Table in order to stop an evil Rip Hunter. Check out the plot synopsis for episode twelve, titled "Camelot/3000," below: "Camelot/3000" — (9:00-10:00 p.m. ET) (TV-14, LV) (HDTV) ALL FOR ONE — The Legends continue their quest to hunt
