

For a while now, we've been wondering where Rip Hunter vanished to, and the midseason finale finally revealed that he's in 1967 directing a movie about...Rip Hunter?! Well, the first synopsis for Legends of Tomorrow's upcoming premiere reveals that the former leader of the team has actually lost his memory due to a "time drift," and it doesn't sound like those are going to be too easy to get back. Regardless of his past, Rip has become a target of the Legion of Doom, and that's enough to cause an awful lot of problems for the Legends! For more on what to expect, here's the official synopsis: LOST MEMORIES — When Damien Darhk (guest star Neal McDonough) and Malcolm Merlyn (guest star John Barrowman) try to capture Rip Hunter (Arthur Darvill) in 1967, they create an Aberration big enough to draw the attention of the Legends. However, when the team arrives they discover that Rip has no memories of his past due to
