

The project is set up at RKO, with Todd Lincoln attached to direct. Lincoln is also producing with Daniel Alter. Set in the world of alien abductees, the Devil Due's comic centers on a seen-it-all and logical medical examiner whose faith in the rational is shattered when she runs afoul a brutal murder of a supposed alien abductee. The case puts her on the path chasing a serial killer working in the alien abductee community who may or may not be human. The comic is based on true events, and is consider one of the scariest comics ever put into the market. Apparently a woman actually approached Whitley with her true accounts of alien horrors. Whitley took her story and blended it with several other accounts. The medical examiner in the comics is Lynn Devlin. She comes across bodies that have been mutilated by having their internal organs removed, but with clean and
