

We're just around a month and a half away from Lionsgate's eagerly awaited Power Rangers reboot and the marketing campaign has really started to ramp up as more and more promotional art is beginning to surface online. The latest batch of photos features the Red (Dacre Montgomery), Pink (Naomi Scott), and Blue Rangers (RJ Cyler) striking new battle-ready poses. We also get a group shot that gives us a pretty neat new tagline: "Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall..." The origin of the new art is a bit uncertain, but they might be designs for upcoming t-shirts. Check it out below:

Plus, here's a look at some of the artwork that'll be featured on upcoming concession products, via GoldenLink: Saban's Power Rangers follows five ordinary high school kids who must become something extraordinary when they learn that their small town of Angel Grove – and the world – is on
